LUCKY BOY IS WORKING MINES TWO SECTIONS

Has Splendid Showing in Hornsilver District and Also at Athens, Nye County.

The Lucky Boy Divide Mining company, owning property at Hornsilver, Esmeralda county, and in the Divide and Athens districts, Nye county, is prosecuting development at Hornsilver and at Athens. This company is meeting with liberal response from the investing public, and since the shares were listed on the San Francisco mining exchange the holdings at Hornsilver and at Athens have been acquired. In a report of conditions touching upon this company, Harry MacNamara, president, and well known mining man of Tonopah, has the following information to give out, which will no doubt prove of interest to all interested in the future of mining in southern Nevada:

"We purchased the Athens property with stock in our company immediately after increasing the capital stock. The Athens property consists of six claims, or more than 100 acres, held by miners' location. It adjoins the Warrior property, owned by San Francisco interests, said to be associated with the Italian bank. The Warrior property is described in a letter from Superintendent Miller, a copy of which is enclosed. It also describes our property. Our property is now being steadily developed by a force of miners (two shifts) jointly with the Warrior, the expense being shared equally by the two companies. The most recent development, just reported, is an average of three feet of 340 ore on the 200-foot level.

"Our property at Hornsilver, acquired last December, consists of two claims, which are adjoined on one side by the property of the Southwestern Gold Mining company, and on the other by the Grand Central Mining company—two producers. We are, also, steadily developing our Hornsilver property. The most recent report from Superintendent Alfred Johnston states that the shaft now down 60 feet is in high grade shipping ore.

HORNSILVER SHOWS GREAT PROSPERITY

Special to the Bonanza.
HORNSILVER, Mar. 14.—H. H. Donough, Reno mining engineer, is making arrangements to institute development upon the Pearl group of claims in this district. Mr. Donough and R. W. Warren secured this property from Wm. Jenkins by purchase, and are showing in several places on the Pearl vein that shows liberally of gold values. Mr. Jenkins has just completed timbering a shaft and placing a whim on another property in which he is interested.

A splendid indication of the importance of the rich strike, recently made on the Rosetta, is the fact that the miners of Hornsilver are making purchases of stock in the company.

The Green property near the State Line mine, is showing a splendid vein of ore. Mr. Green, the owner, has sent in a quantity of the ore to J. M. Fenwick, Tonopah broker, who will have the same on exhibition in his office.

The Hornsilver school gave a splendid entertainment on last Thursday evening, and the audience, which included 45 hard rock miners and 20 ladies of the town, enjoyed the exceptional talent shown by the scholars. Our people are very proud of our little school and these programs are thoroughly enjoyed. A few of the numbers were as follows: Piano selection, Mrs. Vernon; song by school; recitation, "Welcome," Helen Mitchell; dialogue, Erma Kitchen and June Barker; recitation, Noel Kitchen; dialogue, Jean Mitchell and Alice Connelly; song by school, "I Am Going Down the Long, Long Trail With You"; recitation, June Barker; piano selection, "Hawaiian Dreams," dialogue, June Barker, Noel Kitchen, Frankie Connelly, Tim Connelly, Erma Kitchen, Alice Connelly, Calvin Connelly; recitation, "Our Flag," June Barker; recitation, Evelyn Mitchell; song by school; recitation, Helen Mitchell. An exceptionally pleasing number was a negro dialogue, "Town News," which was given by Marguerite Connelly, Helen Mitchell and Evelyn Mitchell. The entire program was thoroughly enjoyed and the people were pleased to note the progress of our school under the able direction of Mrs. Ruby Fitzgerald.

JAS. F. O'BRIEN MINING WRITER DIES AT OATMAN

James F. O'Brien, well known mining writer, and a former resident of Tonopah and Goldfield, died yesterday morning at Oatman, Arizona, following a short illness from pneumonia. Mr. O'Brien arrived in Tonopah during the early days, and was employed as a compositor on the Bonanza for a time. Later he went to Goldfield where he established the News, the first issue of which appeared April 29, 1904. Mr. O'Brien was a native of Springfield, Mass., where he was born on February 3, 1866. He is survived by a widow and two children, the son, Davoren C., residing in Denver, and the daughter, Katherine M. O'Brien, who is with her mother in Reno. The body will be shipped to Oakland where it will be cremated.

FILE YOUR INCOME REPORT BY TOMORROW

Residents should remember that the last date for filing income tax returns expires at midnight on Wednesday. Those who have been dilatory in making their returns have been extremely busy during the last couple of days, and clerical help of this town has been pressed into service to assist in making the returns. Filings may be made at any time up until 12 o'clock tomorrow night, and Fred M. North, deputy revenue collector for this district, will keep his office open in the rooms under the postoffice until midnight Wednesday in order that no one may be overlooked.

BROTHER-IN-LAW OF WM. WATERS DEAD

William Walters, superintendent of the Tonopah Divide mine, left this morning for Nevada City, California, in response to a message received yesterday that his brother-in-law, Peter Jewell, had died on Sunday. Deceased was 48 years of age and was well known in mining circles in southern Nevada. He was formerly connected with the International Nickel company at Cobalt, but in 1919 located in Goldfield and was in charge of the Florence Divide lease, later going to Winnemucca. He is survived by a widow and son, who were with him when he died. The remains will be taken to Nevada City where the funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon.

OLD TIME LAWYER IS DEAD AT RENO

Judge Azro E. Cheney, a resident of Nevada since 1880, and widely known throughout the state, died yesterday morning at Reno from pneumonia. A month ago Judge Cheney underwent an operation for appendicitis, but he failed to recover as quickly as expected, with the result that pneumonia developed. As a young man Judge Cheney located in Eureka, and became a law partner of former Congressman Thomas Wren. He served one term as district attorney and one term in the legislature from Eureka county. He located in Reno in 1891, having been elected district judge in 1899, for the district comprising Washoe, Humboldt and Douglas counties, the judges at that time choosing their respective districts. Deceased is survived by a widow and a son, Everett W. Cheney, a practicing attorney at Reno.

GOLDFIELD PIONEER CALLED TO REWARD

Ronald O'Hanley, a miner in Goldfield since the early days, died Saturday evening in the Association hospital. A sufferer for several years from organic heart disease, complicated by asthma, O'Hanley contracted a severe cold on the second of this month. The cold affected his lungs and the strain proved too great for the heart. He was taken to the hospital on the fifth.

O'Hanley was 62 years of age. He was born in Nova Scotia of Scotch parents. He mined in Butte, Leadville, Aspen, Cripple Creek and other noted districts before coming here in 1905. He went from Nova Scotia to Leadville in 1886. For the last two years his condition has been such as to prevent his working.

AMUSEMENTS

"MADONNAS AND MEN" SPECTACULAR PICTURE

A picture of fine sentiment and high ideals, "Madonnas and Men," one of the big spectacular pictures of the year, will be the attraction at the Butler today. It deals with two stories, one and the same. The first is laid in ancient Rome, 280 B. C. and opens with the portrayal of an overindulgence of the emperor, his son and his favorite "lady," surrounded by the popular in witnessing the gruesome tortures which were the customs of their day in supplying amusement. It shows the combat of gladiators and other blood-curdling episodes staged for the pastime of the royalty and among other things the beautiful Christian girl about to be sacrificed. What we would call a fortune teller or a mystic scribe in those days appeals to the son of the emperor to listen to his prophesy of what the outcome will be if monarchies continue to build, permitting at the sacrifices of womanhood. He guarantees when he is through his tale that the prince will save the Christian girl. Then the story of the present day exact conditions under modern cloak, are portrayed which furnishes the second story, and is filled throughout with many thrills, fights and encounters common among the Romans 2,000 years ago and being repeated in the present era.

Added to the program will be a 2-reel comedy, "Holy Smoke." Tomorrow, Alice Joyce in "The Inner Chamber," adaptation of the famous novel.

Coming—"Shame"—watch for announcement.

NEW ENTERTAINERS TO APPEAR AT OWL CABARET

The Owl Cabaret will be the scene of much merriment tonight. "Mickey" Clifford, proprietor, announced this morning the arrival of a number of new entertainers and promptly at 10 o'clock this evening the hulu hulu dance will be given, to be repeated again at 1 o'clock in the morning. There are a number of novelties included in the program, and coupled with Goldies orchestra from San Francisco, the Owl should be a mighty bright spot in Tonopah tonight.

MANY PAY TRIBUTE MEMORY DEPARTED

Full military honors were paid to the memory of Scott Kelly this afternoon when services were held over the remains of this young man who served with honor during the late World War, with Uncle Sam's forces. Services were held at the undertaking parlors and were under the auspices of Elmer J. Bell Post, American Legion, and in addition to a large number of service men being present, many friends from Tonopah and Manhattan, who had known deceased during this life, were in attendance. Numerous floral offerings were in evidence, showing the esteem in which Mr. Kelly had been held. Much sympathy was expressed to the young widow as she and Mr. Kelly had been married just four months, and one month following the marriage the husband left St. Louis and came to Tonopah with the intention of establishing a home and later sending for his wife.
